KOREAN PRODUCE BUYING SERVICE INC., Case No.: t/a K.P.T.,

Plaintiff,

-against-

CHA BROTHERS, MYUNG JONG CHA and HAE JA CHA, individually and/or doing business
as Cha Brothers,

Defendants.
-----X

DECLARATION OF YONG H. KIM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND AN ORDER OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

YONG H. KIM, declares under penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I am the president of KOREAN PRODUCE BUYING SERVICE INC. t/a K.P.T., the plaintiff in the above-captioned action and makes this Declaration in support of plaintiffs application for a temporary restraining order and an order of preliminary injunction upon the return date of the action. As such, I am personally familiar with the facts and circumstances set forth herein.

2. Plaintiff is a New York corporation engaged in the business of buying and selling wholesale quantities of perishable agricultural commodities in interstate commerce. Plaintiff commences this action to enforce the trust provisions of P.L. 98273, the 1984 Amendment to Section 5 of the PACA, 7 U.S.C. § 499e(c) in the trust amount of $90,261.01 as of November 2, 2007, together with interest and attorney's fees recoverable under the PACA.

3. Defendants MYUNG JONG CHA ("M. Cha") and HAE JA CHA ("H. Cha"), individually and/or doing business as Cha Brothers, are produce "retailers" defined by 7 U.S.C. § 499a and are subject to the PACA.

4. Defendant M. Cha and H. Cha were responsible for the day-to-day operations of their retail business, Cha Brothers, and were in control over the PACA trust assets belonging to plaintiff.

5. The sales and accounts receivable records of K.P.T., including invoices and account statements, are made in the ordinary course of business and are made at or near the time of the occurrence of the event of which they are recorded. These business records are made by me or under my direction and supervision by the employees of K.P.T.

6. In the years of 2006 and 2007, Plaintiff sold and delivered to defendants, in interstate commerce, perishable agricultural products, within the meaning of the PACA, 7 U.S.C. § 499a.

7. At the time of receipt of the produce by defendants, plaintiff became a beneficiary in a statutory trust (the "PACA Trust") designated to assure payment to produce suppliers. The trust consists of all produce or produce-related assets, including all funds commingled with funds commingled with funds from other sources and all assets procured by such funds, in the possession or control of defendants since the creation of the trust.

8. Plaintiff preserved its interest in the PACA Trust by providing notice to defendants of its intent to preserve the trust in its original and usual billing or invoices statements for the produce sold and delivered to defendants.

9. Despite the requirement and liability created by the PACA Trust, defendants had failed to pay for the produce when payment was due and owe plaintiff the total amount of $90,261.01 as of November 2, 2007. A true copy of plaintiffs billing statement dated November 2, 2007 is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

10. Defendants had frequently issued checks to plaintiffs in payment for plaintiffs produce while knowing that they did not have sufficient funds in their account. Between August 2006 and August 2007, defendants issued at least eight (8) checks for a combined amount of $35,861.50 that were all dishonored for insufficient funds. True copies of these dishonored checks are annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

11. Defendants have not disputed the debt in any way and have repeatedly promised to pay but have not done do.

12. Defendants' failure, inability and refusal to pay the amount of $90,261.01 show that defendants have failed to maintain sufficient assets in the statutory trust to pay plaintiffs and are dissipating trust assets.

13. Unless the assets of the defendants are frozen, it is likely that the trust assets will continue to be dissipated and depleted. As a result, plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreparable harm because it will lose the trust assets and rights that are owed under the PACA law.

14. No provisional remedy has been secured or sought in this action and no prior application has been made for the same or similar relief as is sought herein.

15. I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on March 10, 2008
New York, New York.
